it appears necessary to issue a Note including the said offence in the Schedule of to the Mysore Extradition Act. — Point (1) for orders

If approved, necessary extradition ~~arrangements~~ Warrant may issue after the issue of a Note ~~to~~ the declaring the above mentioned offence as an extradition offence. — Point (2)

The Bengal Govt however require information as to whether it is necessary to depute a police Officer to escort the accused to Howrah. It is not clear why a police Officer of Bengal has to be deputed to Mysore State for the purpose. In all cases of extradition to British India, it is usual to surrender the accused to the nearest British Indian police who will arrange for the escort of the accused to the required destination. — Flag C

This item may however be made clear on a reference to the Residency after it is decided to include the offence in question in the Schedule to the Mysore Extradition Act. — Point (3)
